Your Request Has Been Heard

"Then he said to me, 'Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words. The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days, but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I was left there with the kings of Persia.'" Daniel 10:12-13

An interesting story in the Old Testament book of Daniel offers us a rare, behind-the-scenes look at what happens when we pray. It seems only fitting that the story comes from the book of Daniel because Daniel was one of the great prayer warriors in the Bible. He built his daily schedule around his prayer time. He prayed even at the risk of his own life.

In Daniel 10:12-13, Daniel receives a message confirming that his prayer reached Heaven. God heard Daniel's prayer and dispatched an angel with a special message for Daniel. But the angel who was sent from Heaven was held up for twenty-one days because he was engaged in spiritual warfare with a powerful demon spirit. As a result, God dispatched Michael the archangel. (You might say that Michael is a head honcho among angels.) Michael overruled the demon power, and the answer eventually was brought to Daniel. But it took twenty-one days for the answer to get there.

That doesn't necessarily mean that every prayer runs into the same delays. Remember, Daniel was a key figure during a very important time in the history of God's people. He was a leading light not just among the Jewish people in exile, but also among the rulers of Babylon.

The devil recognized Daniel's spiritual potential and did everything in

GET READY...

That's important to remember when our prayers seem to go unanswered. It may be that certain prayers have the potential to cause real damage to our spiritual enemy. He may be working overtime to thwart them. He won't succeed, of course. But recognizing this possibility may help us be more patient when it comes to prayer.

Sometimes when God doesn't answer our prayers as quickly as we would like Him to, we think that He's letting us down. We need to understand that delays aren't necessarily denials. When we pray and don't see an answer as quickly as we would like, it may be a result of circumstances that we can't see.

Maybe you've been praying for someone to come to know the Lord. Maybe you've been asking God to heal you. Maybe you've been asking the Lord to open doors of opportunity for you to serve Him. Don't give up. Don't be discouraged. Keep praying. Jesus said to keep asking, keep seeking, keep knocking, and the door would be opened. So be persistent. And watch what God will do.
